First Communion

233 Activities to Discover Jesus, the Mass, and the Sacraments

First Communion · Ages 7-9

A Note for Grown-Ups

This workbook walks with children ages 7-9 as they prepare for their First Communion, which many parishes in the United States celebrate in second grade. It offers 233 activities, faithful to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, to use at home, in religious education (faith formation) classes, or at a Catholic school.

How to Use It

You can follow the sections in order or choose pages according to the liturgical season and your parish's preparation program. Allow 10 to 20 minutes per activity. Read the stories together with your child, then let him or her answer alone; help if reading is still hard.

The activities are designed to be printed in black and white on Letter paper (8.5 × 11 in). The Answer Key is at the end of the workbook.

Preparing for the Sacraments

The section "My Examination of Conscience" helps your child prepare for First Reconciliation, which comes before First Communion. These pages are personal: your child does not need to show them to anyone. Reassure your child: the priest never repeats what is told to him in Confession, and God always forgives those who ask for forgiveness.

The prayers of the Church follow the texts published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). Words of Scripture in quotation marks are from the New American Bible, revised edition. The Ten Commandments follow the traditional catechetical formula of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The Mass responses are short excerpts from the Roman Missal; the Bedtime Prayer is a simple prayer written for children.

What Your Child Will Discover

- The great stories of the Bible, from Creation to the Resurrection.
- The seven sacraments, especially Baptism, Reconciliation, and the Eucharist.
- The essential prayers, the rosary, and the Mass step by step.
- The liturgical year, the Ten Commandments, and the examination of conscience.

A Few Tips

- Pray with your child: a Sign of the Cross at the beginning, a thank-you at the end.
- Praise the effort more than the right answer.
- Connect the activities to Sunday Mass: the pages of "The Mass Step by Step" will mean more after you have gone to Mass as a family.
- Save the pages of "Getting Ready for My First Communion" for the last weeks before the celebration.
- The cut-out pages can be photocopied, so your child keeps the workbook complete.

Next step: choose the first activity and begin with the Sign of the Cross together.

WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES US

The rosary is a prayer to Mary that helps us think about the life of Jesus. We pray it by moving our fingers along the beads of a string of prayer beads, which is also called a rosary.

A rosary has a crucifix, one large bead, three small beads, and then a circle of five decades. A decade is one large bead and ten small beads.

Holding the crucifix, we pray the Apostles' Creed. On each large bead we pray the Our Father; on each small bead, the Hail Mary; at the end of each decade, the Glory Be. During each decade, we think about a mystery in the life of Jesus and Mary.

The Greatest Commandment

Read the story, then answer the questions.

Name: _____

BASED ON MATTHEW 22:34-40

One day, a scholar of the law asks Jesus which commandment is the greatest.

WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES US

The liturgical year is the Church's calendar. Week after week, it helps us live again the whole life of Jesus: his birth, his life, his death, and his Resurrection.

It begins with Advent, about four weeks before Christmas. Then come Christmas Time, Ordinary Time, Lent, Easter Time, and Ordinary Time again.

Each season has its color, which we see on the priest's chasuble: violet for Advent and Lent, white for Christmas and Easter, green for Ordinary Time, and red for Pentecost and the feasts of the martyrs.

WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES US

Advent is the season when we wait for Jesus and prepare for his coming. It lasts about four weeks, with four Sundays.

We make an Advent wreath with four candles. Each Sunday, we light one more candle: the light grows as Christmas comes closer.

During Advent, we prepare our hearts: we pray more, we help others, and we make peace. We also set up the Nativity scene. The color of Advent is violet.

Then comes the Epiphany: the Wise Men come to adore Jesus. In the United States, it is celebrated on a Sunday in early January. Christmas Time ends with the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Its color is white, the color of celebration.

Jesus spent forty days in the desert. We too prepare for Easter: we pray more, we share with those who have less, and we give something up (this is fasting). Many families also eat no meat on the Fridays of Lent.

It is a time to turn back to God with all our heart. It is a good time to receive God's forgiveness in Confession. The color of Lent is violet.

Fifty days after Easter, the Apostles are gathered in Jerusalem; Mary, the mother of Jesus, is praying with them. Suddenly a noise like a strong, driving wind fills the house.

Tongues as of fire come to rest on each of them. They are filled with the Holy Spirit and begin to speak in other languages. People from many countries understand them, each in their own language!

The Apostles, who were afraid, become brave and tell everyone about the risen Jesus. Pentecost is the birthday of the Church. Its color is red, like the fire of the Spirit.

What Is an Examination of Conscience?

Read the text, then answer the questions.

Name: _____

WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES US

Making an examination of conscience means looking calmly at your day or your life with Jesus, to see what went well and what didn't go so well.

We ask ourselves questions: Did I love God? Did I love others? Did I take care of myself? We thank God for the good, and we ask him to forgive us for the wrong.

We make an examination of conscience before going to Confession, but we can also make one every evening, before going to sleep. It is not meant to scare us: God loves us and wants to help us grow.

only at Christmas | every evening and before Confession | never

My First Communion Is Coming Soon!

Read the text, then answer the questions.

Name: _____

WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES US

First Communion is a great day: for the first time, you will receive Jesus in the Eucharist. In many parishes in the United States, children receive it in second grade.

To get ready, you go to religious education class, get to know Jesus, learn to pray, and take part in the Mass. You also receive the sacrament of Reconciliation, so that your heart is ready.

On that day, your family, your parish, and your friends pray with you. The most important thing is not the party or the gifts: it is Jesus, who gives himself to you. And it is only the beginning: you will be able to receive him every Sunday!

Receiving Communion in the Hand or on the Tongue

Read the text, then answer the questions.

Name: _____

WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES US

In the United States, we receive Communion standing. Before receiving, we bow our head as a sign of respect. We may receive the host on the tongue or in the hand: each person chooses.

In the hand: we place our left hand on top of our right hand, like a little throne to welcome the King. The priest says: "The Body of Christ." We answer "Amen." Then, right there, we take the host with our right hand and put it in our mouth.

On the tongue: we answer "Amen," then open our mouth, and the priest places the host on our tongue. Then we go back to our place to pray in silence.

2 What do we answer to "The Body of Christ"?
