For Parents and Catechists

A Note for Grown-Ups

These 30 little cards let you carry a prayer everywhere: in a pocket, in a backpack, on the nightstand, or in a missal. Each card has a picture to color, a title, and a short text: a prayer, a verse from the Bible, or a saying from a saint.

Getting the Cards Ready

1. Print the sheets on cardstock (65 lb or heavier), in color or in black and white.
2. Cut out each card along the dotted lines. For younger children, a grown-up handles the scissors.
3. Color the picture: your child makes the card their own.
4. Laminate if you like, or cover the card with clear tape: it will last longer.

5 Ways to Use Them

- Card of the day. Each morning, your child draws a card at random and keeps it in a pocket all day.
- Bedtime. Set a card on the nightstand and read it together before lights out.
- Missal bookmark. Slip a card into your child's missal or Bible for Sunday Mass.
- Prayer box. Keep the cards in a small box and draw one before a meal or at the start of religious education class.
- A card to give. Your child colors a card and gives it to a grandparent, a friend, or someone who is sick.

The 8 Themes
